NARRATIVE:

Roy Porter has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 23. His convictions include multiple drug convictions, petty theft, multiple theft convictions, burglary, domestic violence with injury, failure to appear, false identification to a peace officer, violation of parole, and possession of a dagger. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest a 7 year term for the transport and sales of narcotic controlled substances. Porter was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on January 12, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in July 2014 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Porter qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for the transport and sales of narcotic controlled substances is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
